

Most if not all Christians face challenges along their Christian walk; when we do, we often feel as if the Lord has deserted us. Many a great deal die silently to this bug until they fall out. When you read The Thorns and the Rose, you revisit the very sickening challenges like rejection, suffering, condemnation, temptation, accusations, and the desire for and a strategy for conquering – all packaged in one reading, brief but elaborate. With careful and patient dedication to the scriptures, this book for me makes a fairly thorough study of the power of God and the character of man. It should therefore be a must read to all people in spite of their denominations. Thank you Francis and praise be to the Lord for I have gained the conquering formula. Nalugya Grace Victoria Teacher, Kalongo Seed School, Nakasongola, Uganda. The message in this book brings back the otherwise disappearing balance required in the Christian Walk. It is a must read for anyone who truly desires to walk the way of our Lord Jesus Christ and to grow spiritually. Engineer Fredrick Ssemakula Musisi, Bible Teacher, Director, JEFF Building Company. Francis writes from experience in his walk with God – “A hope to everyone that no matter what we are going through, we have a faithful Father in heaven who cares. This book is a must read for all Christians. Ssesaazi Godwin, Youth Pastor, Victory City Church - Ntinda. In the THORNS & THE ROSE, the author directs our thinking to the most important subjects in our Christian Walk yet the most neglected in our everyday lives, with in-depth Biblical reference. This book will change your perspective about life. Read it! Kyolaba Brenda, Makerere University. An inspirational book that digs deep in the hearts of men and cultivates a new wave of understanding to those that crave to be conquerors. The bottom line is that we all face challenges in our Christian walk and hope to do it our way BUT our dear loving God desires that we should kill the pride and ask more of him to dwell in us that we may walk uprightly and desire more of Him and less of the worldly desires.
